

One Beautiful National Park... Two Great Railways..!

The Ffestiniog & Welsh Highland Railways make an ideal inclusion in any North Wales holiday, with single journeys of various length available - allowing the coach to take the main roads and meet the group at the other end. Both railways travel through the stunning scenery of the Snowdonia National Park - with the Welsh Highland running between Caernarfon, Beddgelert and Porthmadog, while the Ffestiniog runs between Porthmadog and Blaenau Ffestiniog.

Although these steam trains are narrow-gauge, the carriages are modern and comfortable with double-glazing, heating and an 'at-your-seat' refreshment service. Pre-booked catering options available to visiting groups enable you to take lunch, morning coffee or a Welsh afternoon tea on board the train. This can save time in your day by eliminating a refreshment stop, but also makes your guests feel very special - like a mini Orient Express service. Our station cafés at Porthmadog and Caernarfon also welcome groups throughout the year.

Special interest groups should explore the Group Information page on our website for ideas of how a train journey can easily be combined with a garden visit or history tour, to name but two.

For details of our special Group packages and rates, see over page. For more information - visit our website or contact our friendly Group Travel staff - by email to groups@ffwhr.com or by phone on 01766 516024.

We would be delighted to help you plan your visit.
